

RIBA v AIA IX MATCH

CANTERBURY JULY 1990

Welcome to the ninth RIBA v AIA Golf Tournament, For participants 'old' and new, we trust that you will have an enjoyable week both on and off the course, in this delightful area of Kent.

The itinerary gives you an outline of events which have been planned, as well as suggested daytime excursions for non-golfers on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday. These are in addition to the evening tours (for which you have already signed up). If you are interested in going to either Dover Castle, Chilham Castle Gardens or the historic town of Rye, will you indicate your preference on Sunday evening at the Cocktail Party, so that transport can be arranged.

On the golfing front, Bill Jack will Captain the British Men and Rob Walker will Captain the American team - for the ladies, Marian Jenkins Captains the British side, and Lyn Walker is the American Captain.

PROGRAMME OF EVENTS

SATURDAY 14TH JULY

Breakfast: County Hotel - 7.00 - 9.00 a.m. Orchard Suite
Falstaff Hotel - 7.30 - 9.30 a.m.

Golf: 4-ball games at Prince's Golf Club, Sandwich, tee times have been reserved commencing 10.58, with the probability of a second round later in the day for those who want one. Men, ladies or mixed games can be played - those wishing to play should advise Bill Jack so that games can be arranged.

Lunch: No lunches have been arranged, but food is available for those who wish to eat at the course.

Cocktail Party: 6.30 p.m. County Hotel

Dinner: Own arrangements. If you wish to eat in the hotel restaurants, please ensure that you make a reservation.

SUNDAY 15TH JULY

Breakfast: County Hotel - 7.00 - 9.00 a.m. Orchard Suite
Falstaff Hotel - 7.30 - 9.30 a.m.

Golf: 4-ball games at Prince's Golf Club, Sandwich. Tee times have been reserved commencing 10.58. These can be men, ladies or mixed games and a list will be compiled on Saturday on a first come first served basis. Advise Bill Jack if you wish to be included.

2-ball games can be played at The Royal Cinque Ports Club at Deal commencing 12 noon, fitting in with the members starting sheet. If you would prefer to play a two-ball game, advise Bill Jack who will reserve starting times and arrange pairs unless you have already done so.

No arrangements have been made for lunch but food is available at the course for players.

Cocktail Party: 6.30 p.m. County Hotel

Dinner: Own arrangements - if you wish to eat in the hotel restaurants, please ensure that you make a reservation.

MONDAY 16TH JULY

Breakfast: County Hotel 06.30 - 9.00 a.m. Orchard Suite
Falstaff Hotel 7.30 - 9.30 a.m.
(Continental breakfast is available in your room)

Golf:

MEN playing Royal St. George's Golf Club, Sandwich commencing play 8.15 a.m. off the 10th tee for either 2 or 4 ball games. Special dispensation has been given by the Secretary for 4-ball matches to be played on the strict understanding that 2-ball games have 'right of way' and must be waved through by a 4-ball immediately.

Second round tee times have been booked - 10th tee 2 - 2.45 p.m. and from the 1st tee 2.30 - 3 p.m.

LADIES will be playing Princes Golf Club, Sandwich commencing 10.18 a.m. (Journey takes approximately 45 mins)

If anyone wishes to play a second round, there should be no difficulty in getting tee times later in the day.

No set arrangements have been made for lunch, but food is available for those who wish to eat at the Course.

Non Players: A visit to Dover Castle is planned. If sufficient cars are not available, taxis can be booked via the County Hotel reception. Please indicate on Sunday evening whether you would like to go on this trip, so that groups can be co-ordinated.

Evening Tour: Guided tour of Canterbury commencing 5 p.m. with official guides. The party will be split into 3 or 4 groups, each with their own guide. The meeting place for this guided tour is at Canterbury Cathedral (Christchurch Gate) - a 5 minute walk from the hotel. The tour will take approximately 1½ hours.

Dinner: Own arrangements. If you wish to eat in the hotel restaurants, please ensure that you make a reservation.

TUESDAY 17TH JULY

Breakfast: County Hotel 7.00 - 9.00 a.m. Orchard Suite
Falstaff Hotel 7.30 - 9.30 a.m.

Golf:

Practice round for both ladies and men at The Royal Cinque Ports Golf Club in Deal - commencing 9.30 a.m., (those people who are taking the London tour will tee off first). Special dispensation has been obtained to play four ball games.

No lunch arrangements have been made, but food is available for those who wish to eat at the Course.

If you are not taking the tour to London and wish to play a second round of golf, 2-ball games can be arranged in the afternoon.

Tour: Theatre trip to London and the National Theatre

Coaches leave 3 p.m. sharp from Rose Lane (closeby hotel). This trip goes via Greenwich where you board a Riverboat which will take you to the National for a light meal followed by the theatre. Coffee and biscuits will be available on the coaches.

Dinner: Own arrangements for those not going to London. If you wish to eat in the hotel restaurants, please ensure that you make a reservation.

WEDNESDAY 18TH JULY

Breakfast: County Hotel 06.30 - 9.00 a.m. Orchard Suite
Falstaff Hotel 7.30 - 9.30 a.m.
(Continental breakfast is available in your room)

Golf:

MEN First match at The Royal St. George's Club Sandwich teeing off at 8.15 a.m. A light lunch is arranged at the Clubhouse.

Afternoon tee times have been booked as for Monday

10th tee - 2 p.m. - 2.45 p.m.
1st tee - 2.30 - 3 p.m.

Alternatively, mixed games can be arranged for the afternoon at the nearby Prince's Golf Club.

LADIES A stableford competition has been organised for the ladies at Prince's Golf Club Sandwich commencing 9.06. As this is closeby to St. George's Club - there will be no difficulty in arranging transport jointly for men and ladies.

A light lunch has been arranged at the Clubhouse for players.

For those ladies wishing to play a second round, this is available at Prince's - either ladies or mixed.

Non-Players: For non players, a visit to Chilham Castle Gardens is planned. Lunch has been arranged at the Jacobean Tea Room in the Castle grounds. If you are interested, please indicate on Sunday evening, so that numbers can be confirmed.

Tour: Dinner at Leeds Castle

A dinner has been arranged at Leeds Castle. The buses will leave the County Hotel at 5.45 p.m. There will be a tour of the Castle before sitting down to dinner in the Fairfax Hall, a structure dating from about 1680.

THURSDAY 19TH JULY

Breakfast: County Hotel 7.00 - 9.00 a.m. Orchard Suite
Falstaff Hotel 7.30 - 9.30 a.m.

Golf:

MEN The second match will take place at The Royal Cinque Ports Club at Deal commencing 9.30 a.m.

Lunch is available in the Clubhouse - afternoon rounds can be arranged for those wishing to play.

LADIES The first ladies match will take place at The Royal Cinque Ports Club in Deal. This will be a Stableford Competition and the ladies will be following on from the men at approximately 10.30 a.m.

Lunch at the Club followed by ladies or mixed golf for those who wish to play again.

Non-Players: Leaving at 9.30 a.m. a visit to the attractive cobbled Cinque Port town of Rye, with its beautiful quay and historic buildings. Lunch has been booked at the Mermaid Inn, founded in the 11th Century - the headquarters of a notorious gang of smugglers. There will be an opportunity to look round the interesting shops and potteries and return to the County Hotel by 4 p.m. Numbers are limited, so please indicate on Sunday evening if you wish to be included.

Dinner: Own arrangements. If you plan to eat in the hotel restaurants, please ensure that you make a reservation.

FRIDAY 20TH JULY

Breakfast: County Hotel 06.30 - 9.00 a.m. Orchard Suite
Falstaff Hotel 7.30 - 9.30 a.m.
(Continental breakfast is available in your room)

Golf:

MEN The final match is arranged at The Royal St George's Golf Club, Sandwich commencing on the 10th tee at 8.15 a.m.

A light snack lunch has been arranged and afternoon tee times have been booked as follows:-

10th tee - 2 p.m. - 2.45 p.m.

1st tee - 2.30 p.m. - 3 p.m.

LADIES The Ladies Match for the RIBA/AIA Cup will be played at Prince's Golf Club in Sandwich commencing 9.30 a.m. This year it will be a team event (American v The Brits) and the format will be match play.

This will be followed by lunch in the Clubhouse.

Farewell Dinner - County Hotel:

Reception 7.30 p.m. in the County Suite followed at 8 p.m. with the Farewell Dinner and Presentations.

(If anyone has any specific dietary requirements - please advise Clare Godden at the County Hotel.

General Information

Golfers:

1. Green fees have not been included and payment will be required at the course on the day of play. They are as follows:-

Royal St. George's Golf Club - £40 per day

Royal Cinque Ports - £30 per day

Prince's Golf Club (Sat/Sun) - £29 per round/£31 per day
(Weekdays) - £24 per round/£26 per day

Lunches on non match days must be paid for.

2. It will take approximately 30 - 45 minutes to drive to the Golf Courses.

3. A time sheet will be posted in the County Hotel each evening - with the order of play for the next day. Please advise Bill Jack or Rob Walker of your golf requirements.

Lady Golfers: Golf is available every day - can you advise either Marian Jenkins or Lyn Walker on Sunday evening, as to which days you are planning to play.

Non-Golfers: You will receive a pack of information giving you details of particular areas of beauty and historic interest. In addition there are suggested daytime excursions included in the itinerary which you may wish to join. Please indicate on Sunday evening if you are interested in going on any of these outings, so that arrangements can be made.

Non-players may like to make the Orchard Suite (at the County Hotel) a meeting point at say 9 a.m to make plans for the day and to share transport.

The Tourist Information Office is adjacent to the hotel in St Margarets Street, and they will be happy to help with individual excursions.

A map showing the County Hotel and the Falstaff Hotel is attached. The telephone numbers are - County: 0227 766266 and the Falstaff: 0227 462138.